Yes, You Can!

It was in the days of the steam-powered locomotive when a particular, by-the-book veteran engineer was making his weekly mail run in a rural area. As the seasoned train jockey leaned out of his cab to survey the distance ahead, he saw on the horizon an object standing smack dab in the middle of the track! He pulled the brake lever as hard as he could, and an array of sparks showered everything around! He was somehow able to bring the train to a halt, but only inches away from the object blocking his path. Standing directly in front of the iron behemoth was an old farmer waving a piece of paper in the air. "Hey Joe," yelled the engineer, "what's wrong? Is there an emergency?" "Well Pete," drawled the farmer, "I got this here letter I need you to mail for me." Pete became enraged when he learned the reason for his frantic, unscheduled stop. With eyes glaring at Joe, he bellowed, "You can't stop this train just to mail a letter!" Joe, unfazed by Pete's anger, simply replied, "Well, maybe I can't stop the train to mail a letter, but I did!"

Whenever there are hard decisions to make or grave decisions to face in life, people generally follow one of two tracks: (1) They allow themselves to be overwhelmed by the circumstances; or (2) they decide they can "stand in the middle of the track" and take on the problem, even if it appears to be heading toward them like a speeding locomotive!

Aren't Christians supposed to belong to the second group? Don't saints of the Most High fervently believe they have an unequalled power working on their behalf to ensure there is always a means by which they can triumph over the most pressing of challenges (1 Cor. 10:13)? The soul cleansed by the blood of Christ never, never, never has to settle for a "draw," much less a defeat when it comes to trial or temptation. The redeemed can trust in God's providence to the point they don't have to employ the "cop out" of "It can't be done!" when it comes to conquering a spiritual foe! We can be certain that our God will care mightily for His possession (us) and that He will do exactly what is necessary to see that we remain spiritually intact.

Isn't it uplifting for the heart to know that while others may be run over by the train of impossibility, we, as sons and daughters of the King, can with confidence say, "I can do it? I can overcome. I can be more than a conqueror (Rom. 8:28-39)!"

Wisdom From God

Would you consider yourself wise? Answer truthfully. Maybe you would maybe you wouldn't. Maybe it depends on the situation. We read about wisdom in the bible and how it is something to be sought after. King Solomon was given the opportunity to choose anything he wanted, and God would give it to him. Solomon asked for wisdom.

In James 1:5 it says, "if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach and it will be given to him." Later on in the book of James it describes the attributes of true wisdom. James 3:17 talks about how there is wisdom that comes from God and what that looks like. It says, "But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere."

Wisdom from above is something that seems fair and loving to those around. Wisdom from God is something that seeks what is best for others instead of selfish wants and desires. May you be filled with wisdom from God. Not only that but let that Godly wisdom shape how you live and how you treat those who are around you. If you need it then you can take comfort in knowing that God is one that gives wisdom generously to all.
