A Prayer of One Who Has A Servant's Heart

Dear God and Father, Jehovah Who reigns in majesty above,

I come before your throne of grace this day humbly asking that I may have the heart of a servant! I pray my dear Lord that I never allow pride and ambition to so blind me that I forget my place and my duties in the Kingdom, and that I never become so arrogant that I believe my service is far greater than that which is rendered by another of Your children. May it be marked by a selflessness which motivates me to meet the needs of another even though it means postponing doing something for myself (Phil. 2:1-4), and may all the fruit I bear in my spiritual labors be pleasant to the "taste" of those around me (Matt. 7:16-20; Gal. 5:22,23; 1 Pet. 2:5-12; Titus 2:9-15).

O, Omnipotent One, may I learn as a servant how to truly love, to wear myself out in devotion and affection, not only for those with whom I have agreement, but also for those who would be my foe (Matt. 5:38-48). Father, may I possess a love which is more than mere profession; may it manifest itself in sacrifice, in "letting go," in building up, and in thinking, wanting, and doing what's most beneficial for the Kingdom and others (1 Cor. 13:4-7; 1 Jn. 3:16-18). Please help me to see that unless I love in this fashion- love without complaining, without holding grudges, and without bitterness- I can't truly claim Jesus as Lord and You as Abba (Gal. 4:1-6)

As a servant, Jehovah, may I find delight in praising You and giving honor to Your name. May I show responsibility by faithfully doing those tasks for which I have ability and to which I have willingly been assigned. May those around me witness, as I complete my duties, that I count You as the most important Person in my life, and that I never give the slightest indication I am attempting to serve two masters (Matt. 6:24).

As a servant, my God, may I be ready at all times to do good (Gal. 6:10), to bear a burden (Gal. 6:1,2), to pray for others (Jas. 5:16) and to step aside when another may be able to accomplish a greater good for the Cause of Christ.

May my heart hold tenderness and compassion. May it be a receptacle for the truth and be ready to also defend it with meekness and fear (1 Pet. 3:14-16). May this servant's heart, my King, help make me a fit vessel for Your use.

In Jesus' name,

Richard Deising

FUSION NEWS

That's Not True

There is a growing mentality that there is no truth. What you believe is exactly that, YOUR belief. Your belief is only for you and nobody else. If you believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and you want to live your life for Him then good for you. Your belief can't be applied to someone else. What is true for you cannot be true for someone else.

The fact is: That is a lie. When you have that mentality then anything you do is excusable. There can't be any real right and wrong. We know that God has set the standard for us and has given us instructions on what is right and wrong.

2nd Timothy 3:16-17 says, "All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work."

God's Word is truth even when cultures and opinions change. The idea that there is no truth is a dangerous one, and we need to remember that we serve a God that gives us truth. Not only does He give us truth, but it is by His truth that we have freedom.

John 8:31-31, "So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed him, "If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.""

God gives us truth, freedom, and wisdom. All of which come by knowing Him and His Word. We do not live by the standard of the world, but by the standard of the One who created the world.

Scott

Memory Verse:

"Jesus did many other signs which are not written in this book." -John 20:30

For the next several weeks your child will learn about miracles of Jesus. From Jesus turning water into wine, healing a blind man, to Jesus calming the water during a storm. They will learn through crafts, short films, science experiment, drama class, and games.

We are so glad that you are here with us today. Our service today will be to praise and worship our God and to encourage and uplift us to face another week in this world. We will sing and pray. We will meet around the Lord's Table to remember what our Savior did for us so long ago. We will give of the many blessings that God has given us to do the work He has given us. We will have a lesson from His Word that will hopefully be applicable to your daily life.

If you are a visitor, please fill out a visitor's card so we can have a record of your time with us. Ask any of our family members where you can get one of these cards. If there is anything, we can do to help you then please let us know.
