Being Able to Show Gratitude

A drop of rain and a clear, blue sky,
An early frost or a morning dew,
Do not seem special in the scheme of things,
But they are gifts from Almighty God to You!

A child's sweet laughter, a glowing smile,
And upon the shoulder a gentle touch;
The sending of someone to hold your hand
Can be God saying, "I love you so much!"

The changing of seasons, the song of a bird,
Even lightning streaks across the sky,
Are grand illustrations of Who's in control,
And we can know that He's always nigh!

But it can be so easy to lose our sight
Of how much the Lord has done for us;

But even when we show grave ingratitude,
God doesn't give us up in an angry disgust!

He continues to send the bright sunshine
And allows the moon its light to give;
He will not stop supplying our needs-

He bountifully delivers what we need to live!

Does He love us because we've forced Him to?

Or because we're always so very good?
Does He bestow His affection upon mankind?

Because man thanks Him as he always should?

No, despite our lack of gratitude

And the selfishness we too often display,
The God of heaven continues to give
So many blessings to fill each day!

But isn't it time we stop and think?
About how empty our lives would be,
If the Father of Creation decided to withhold

All His providence from you and me!
If we'd learn to be thankful for the little things

And concentrate on how "rich" we are,
We'd surely see the real joys of life
Are not in having money, a house, or car!
And only individuals who understand

such things
Can appreciate all that the Lord has done;
And their grateful spirits truly rejoice in the fact

That God's greatest gift was his only Son!

Giving Thanks

Psalm 105:1-5

"Oh give thanks to the LORD, call upon His name; Make known His deeds among the peoples. Sing to Him, sing praises to Him; Speak of all His wonders. Glory in His holy name; Let the heart of those who seek the LORD be glad. Seek the LORD and His strength; Seek His face continually. Remember His wonders which He has done, His marvels and the judgments uttered by His mouth."

It's always around this time of year that we talk about thankfulness, what it means, and why it's important. This theme of thankfulness isn't new but quite old. When we look back in the Old Testament, we see a common theme of God delivering His people or providing for them and His people turning their blessings into praise. When you read through the Psalms so many of them deal with praising the Lord and thanking Him for what He has done.

The phrase "give credit where credit is due" comes to mind when you think about how we should live. We need to give God the glory for everything that He's done for us. Thankfulness should be sewn into who we are as a person. 1 Thessalonians 5:18 says, "in everything give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus."

Let's keep our eyes open, watching for the hand of God and His blessings. Let's give credit where credit is due when it is due. Let's be observant so that we may see God more clearly than ever before and give Him thanks for the awesome God He is.
