God is Greater

When was the last time you prayed to God? What was the reason you were praying? Maybe you were praying over a meal, maybe you were praying for God's wisdom in some matter, or maybe you were just thanking God for something in your life. Regardless, in that moment you recognized the need to go before God. You saw a need to take your situation and bring it to God.

There is something so comforting with being in prayer with God. We can unload all of our concerns, releasing anxiety, anger, and stress. We can praise and bless Him for who He is and thanking Him for what He has done. We can take our restlessness and find rest in a God that is bigger than any of our fears and worries. Our God isn't a part-time amateur, but rather He is an expert in humanity and love. He knows exactly how to provide, and our God provides well.

Isaiah 40:28

Have you not known? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable.

Proverbs 18:10

The name of the LORD is a strong tower; the righteous man runs into it and is safe.

God is constant, He is forever, and He is our ultimate source of guidance and comfort. He offers more than this world ever could. Granted, the world would strongly disagree. We are constantly being pulled and tugged at to be convinced that the world is more. Our world says we can't find peace without material blessings and worldly comforts. Jesus while speaking to a crowd in Luke 12 warns them, "Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."

Our God is greater than all of the worldly possessions that we could ever have. He offers more comfort than this world could ever give. God is greater than all the worries that this world will give us. He is worth more than all the money we could earn. In every scenario between God and this world, we will always see that God is greater.

I Choose You

Have you ever been picked last for something? It could have been a group project, a team, or just some game. It's not really the best feeling in the world. When that happens, we can end up doubting ourselves and feeling pretty low.

The good thing is our God has picked us. Not just some random "oh I guess I'll take.....you" but a deliberate and meaningful "I want you." In 1st Peter we read about how we are viewed by God. 1 Peter 2:9 says, "But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light."

Chosen, royal, and holy, all for His own possession. In the mission of spreading God's love and glory, He wants you. Here's the thing, it's not that you were the best or the greatest because we see that we proclaim the excellencies "Of Him who called you out of darkness."

We were in darkness, lost, and stuck. It was God that called us and brought us out of the darkness and gave us His light and purpose. He wants us not because we are so great but because we know what it's like to be lost. We know how it feels to be stuck and alone. On the other hand, we know what it is like to be redeemed. We know what its like to be rescued. To be in God's light. For that reason, you have been chosen. He says, "I want you."

1 Peter 2:10

Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

Scott

We are so glad that you are here with us today. Our service today will be to praise and worship our God and to encourage and uplift us to face another week in this world. We will sing and pray. We will meet around the Lord's Table to remember what our Savior did for us so long ago. We will give of the many blessings that God has given us to do the work He has given us. We will have a lesson from His Word that will hopefully be applicable to your daily life.

If you are a visitor, please fill out a visitor's card so we can have a record of your time with us. Ask any of our family members where you can get one of these cards. If there is anything, we can do to help you then please let us know.
