No Middle Ground

Today is going to be an encouraging day because we get to hear all about the work of God going on in Zimbabwe and other places around the world. It is great to be able to have Dorian Flynn of Partners4Africa with us this morning! Here is a short article Dorian wrote not long ago about the nature of Christ:

I had just completed my 100th program of "Moments of Truth." It ended with Jesus is the King of Kings, Lord of Lords and Lion of Judah. It was truly a milestone of television programming for me and the Antiguan production crew. We were filming at beautiful Long Bay Beach with its white powder sand and aqua backdrop.

Immediately Frank, the producer, gave me a thumbs up and said, "I love your passion for Jesus. However, I believe he was a good man, but just a man."

I responded initially with one word: "Impossible."

You see, Jesus claimed some amazing or outrageous attributes and qualities depending on your perspective: Sinless on earth (John 8:46-47), Only way to God (John 14:6), Forgiver of sins (Luke 5:20-21), Heavenly king (John 18:36-37), Giver of everlasting life (John 10:28-30), and Would die and come back to life (John 10:17).

Really! With those claims we are only left with two options. He is either a liar, a fraud, manipulator, and consummate fake or he is God. THERE IS NO MIDDLE GROUND.

The question is still the same now or yesteryear. "But who do you say that I am?" (Matthew 16:15). This person who had the best tweet ever said, "You shall love the Lord your God. You shall love your neighbor as yourself." It revealed his core. He didn't just tell us that he loved us, he showed us.

It's true isn't it, that the two most important days in our life is the day we are born and the day we find out why? In Jesus, we find our origin and purpose.

Ravi Zacharias the Indian born Christian apologist made many inspirational statements during his lifetime. Here is one that just exudes assurance, "There is no greater discovery than seeing God as the author of your destiny." Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes in me will live, even after dying." (John 11:25)

FUSION NEWS

The Call

What is it that you want in life? Are there certain friends, a specific lifestyle, or hobbies that you want to have? What do you want in your spare time? What do you want when things are hectic? What are the things that draw you in? This life we live has plenty to offer, and we often have plenty of desire for them.

If we aren't paying attention, we can find ourselves walking a path led by what we want instead of what we need. We may want a life that the world offers, but what we need is the life God has planned for us. We may want the riches and the gifts of the world, but what we need is the eternal blessings that God offers us.

Jesus tells us where our mind and our focus needs to be. He says in Mark 8:34-35 "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it."

We need to deny ourselves and seek after what God gives us freely. Give up our selfishness and receive the mercy of God. Jesus tells us that it profits us nothing to get everything this world can offer us if we forfeit our soul.

We are called to many things as we go through life, but the question is: what call will you answer? The one that calls you closer to the world or closer to God?

Scott

We are so glad that you are here with us today. Our service today will be to praise and worship our God and to encourage and uplift us to face another week in this world. We will sing and pray. We will meet around the Lord's Table to remember what our Savior did for us so long ago. We will give of the many blessings that God has given us to do the work He has given us. We will have a lesson from His Word that will hopefully be applicable to your daily life.

If you are a visitor, please fill out a visitor's card so we can have a record of your time with us. Ask any of our family members where you can get one of these cards. If there is anything we can do to help you then please let us know.
