A Loyal Friend: Just in Time

John Maxwell and Dan Reiland relay a story told by Earl C. Willer in their book, The Treasure of a Friend (1999). It's a story of two men who were lifelong friends and I think you'll find that it is an impactful example. So, listen to the story of Jim and Phillip:

"Though Jim was just a little older than Phillip and often assumed the role of leader, they did everything together. They even went to high school and college together.

After college they decided to join the Marines. By a unique series of circumstances, they were sent to Germany together where they fought side by side in one of history's ugliest wars.

One sweltering day during a fierce battle, amid heavy gunfire, bombing, and close-quarters combat, they were given the command to retreat. As the men were running back, Jim noticed that Phillip had not returned with the others. Panic gripped his heart. Jim knew if Phillip was not back in another minute or two, then he wouldn't make it.

Jim begged his commanding officer to let him go after his friend, but the officer forbade the request, saying it would be suicide.

Risking his own life, Jim disobeyed and went after Phillip. His heart pounding, he ran into the gunfire, calling out for Phillip. A short time later, his platoon saw him hobbling across the field carrying a limp body in his arms.

Jim's commanding officer upbraided him, shouting that it was a foolish waste of time and an outrageous risk. 'Your friend is dead,' he added, 'and there was nothing you could do.'

'No sir, you're wrong,' Jim replied. 'I got there just in time. Before he died, his last words were 'I knew you would come.''"

I don't know about you, but that speaks to my heart. It reminds me of Proverbs 18:24, "A man of many companions may come to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother."

God designed us to be relational people—to be in families, to develop bonds, to become friends, and to support one another. I hope that each of us has at least one person in our lives that we "know would come" to our aid no matter how dire the situation. If you don't have someone like that in your corner, the best place to find one is in the Church—and we hope to get you connected to someone soon!

FUSION NEWS

Broken Pieces

If you are broken by life trials and weary from life's defeats. If you have been badly battered and have no joy or peace. Give God your broken pieces so He will mold them back in place. He can make them better than before with a touch of His sweet grace. If your dreams have been shattered after much struggle and pain. Even if your life seems hopeless God can restore you again. God can take broken pieces and He can make them whole. It matters not how badly broken God has the power to restore. So, we are never without hope no matter the shape we are in. God can take our fragmented lives and put them together again. So, if you're broken beyond measure and you don't know what to do. God specializes in broken things so His glory can shine through.
