Till We Meet Again

Four years ago, Kara and I came to Rose Hill. We began working with the youth and making connections to our new brothers and sisters in Christ. So much can happen in four years. We've been able to share so much with each other and create lasting memories and bonds. This congregation was there for us during some of our hardest moments as well as our most joyful. We've been blessed to have this village as we've watched our family grow. Rose Hill has played a huge role in Rylie's life and her love for God, and for that I am extremely thankful. Even Calum has his little buddies in the cradle roll class.

God designed His church to be a family and Rose Hill is a fantastic model of what God intended. There is a closeness here that is highly sought after in many places. It truly is bittersweet for us as we move into the next chapter of our lives. We will (and already do) miss the family we have here, but God has called each and every one of us for a purpose. It's our prayer that each and every one of you work for the Lord no matter where that may take you. We pray that you would serve God whole heartedly and be the example and servant that He has called you to be.

2nd Timothy 2:15, "Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth."

We also pray that Rose Hill would continue to be a great family unit. Continue being there for each other. Keep relying on God and relying on each other through life. Whoever comes here after we leave, we pray that you would take them in and show them why this is such a special place. Work together and be an unrelenting driving force for God.

Kara and I want to see each and every one of you again. We hope to see you again in this life so we can share our journeys together, but ultimately, we want to see you in the glory of God's Kingdom. Life is unpredictable and crazy. We are constantly bombarded by things and are always facing a spiritual war. Be rooted in God. Stay rooted in God. No matter what comes your way, place your trust and hope in Him. Keep that fire burning.

1 John 2:24-25, "Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you too will abide in the Son and in the Father. And this is the promise that he made to us - eternal life."

Thank you, Rose Hill, for the time we've had here and for what you've meant to us. We will do what we can to stay in touch. Keep seeking the Lord and keep seeking the lost. The Lord bless you and keep you.

FUSION NEWS

Making the Most of Summer

I remember how relieved I was when I was in school to finally get to summer break—the first morning of waking up without needing to go to school, without homework to stress over, and the excitement of having some “free time.” One of the things I remember most was that I often woke up earlier in the summer than during the school year! I didn’t set my alarm, but I guess my brain was excited about being on break!

My guess is that every adult can look back on their summers and realize that some were better than others, especially spiritually. There were summers where I was really engaged spiritually with Bible reading, prayer, youth group fellowship, and was just overall really passionate about the Lord...But there were also summers where I was much less concerned with my relationship with God and more concerned about other activities, events, relationships, hobbies, etc.

Here’s the thing: summer break can help you understand where you are at spiritually and can help you grow if you’ll let it. Since you have some more time to do the things you want, you have the chance to use some of that time to pursue God and to get to know Him better. But if summer goes by all the sudden (and it always goes by quick!) without getting to know God any better, then that might show us that it is time to make a change.

I like what Solomon said in Ecclesiastes 12:1: “Remember your Creator in the days of your youth.”

Growing close to God and learning to walk with Him is not something you have to save for later in life. We are already so proud of each of you and your faith! Make the most of this summer and continue to enjoy spending time with your Creator in the days of your youth!

Nathan

Lesson 42

Resurrection and Ascension

Sunday, May 23rd – Wednesday, June 9th

Memory Verse:

“Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all nations.”
Mark 16:15

For the next three weeks, we will be learning about the resurrection and ascension of Jesus. Good News! Jesus didn’t stay in the grave!
He rose again, just like He promised.

Melia Johnson - May 23

Cobb, Daniel & Hope (12th) - May 30

We are so glad that you are here with us today. Our service today will be to praise and worship our God and to encourage and uplift us to face another week in this world. We will sing and pray. We will meet around the Lord's Table to remember what our Savior did for us so long ago. We will give of the many blessings that God has given us to do the work He has given us. We will have a lesson from His Word that will hopefully be applicable to your daily life.

If you are a visitor, please fill out a visitor's card so we can have a record of your time with us. Ask any of our family members where you can get one of these cards. If there is anything, we can do to help you then please let us know.
