anchors aweigh!

I am so appreciative of each of our fantastic volunteers who have helped put on a great VBS, even if it wasn't the exact same layout as past years. We had volunteers who planned, organized, decorated, taught, led groups of kids, made crafts, and so much more. Most importantly, our volunteers greeted all the children with a smile in the joy of the Lord, sharing the love of God!

As I was writing this article during the week, I was thinking about the "Anchored" theme of VBS. I thought of a familiar phrase, but I have to confess that I have heard the expression "anchors aweigh" my whole life without realizing what it meant. In my mind it was spelled "anchors away," and I thought it was about dropping an anchor to keep a ship stationary.

But it is actually an expression used by sailors, including the Navy, to indicate that there are no anchors on the sea floor and the ship is ready to depart—quite the opposite meaning!

As Christians, we understand that we have "an anchor." We sing about "an anchor that keeps the soul," and we even had a great VBS yesterday based on this theme! Perhaps you recall Hebrews 6:19, "We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure."

The metaphor of Jesus, and our hope in Jesus, anchoring us through life's troublesome days is a powerful one. But can I bring a different point to you based on "anchors" and the phrase "anchors aweigh"?

Sometimes in life we are not anchored in our hope, but we are tied down by our attachments to sin and the distractions of life. As a ship cannot reach its destination when it is anchored to its port of origin, neither can we reach our destination if we remain anchored to this world.

I am reminded of Hebrews 12:1, "Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us."

In order to finish the race of our faith, it is certain that we will need the anchor of hope in Christ. But it is also certain that we will need to let go of other anchors in our life that seek to "weigh" and "cling." We will need to look at these temptations or distractions and say, "Anchors aweigh!"

Staying in Touch with YOUTH

Using Your Head

I once saw a video of a man using his head to crack open a watermelon. Seemed kind of silly, but nonetheless, he was determined to shatter that large piece of fruit with the sheer force of his forehead. I guess he was proud of himself upon the success of his quest, but I have to wonder if the tremendous headache he must have suffered after the deed was worth proving to others that he had a hard head!

In Proverbs 23:7 declares, "For as a man thinks within himself, so is he." The meaning is simple: Whatever you think about the most is what you do and eventually become! So, what are you using your "head" for? Hopefully, you realize God gave you a mind to not only think good thoughts, but to put those good thoughts into action (Phil. 4:8,9) so that you can live a good life and make life worth living for those around you. It's evident that the Lord has good thoughts about you (Jer. 29:11) and that He wants the very best for you, but what do you want for yourself? Is it plain to others that when you make decisions about certain actions that you have prayed about it and even asked your parents for advice? When you speak, is it clear to those around you that you have thought about the impact- good or bad- that your words will have? When you think about your future, have you tried to put your life's ambitions and goals into the context of what the Lord would want for you and the use of your abilities? In short, do you use your head to make decisions, speak words, and make plans that will first and foremost glorify God?

While there will always be those who foolishly use their nogginns to split watermelons, may we never forget that the Lord gave us a head to use in such a way so as to make a difference in our lives and to change the world for Him.
