Welcome!

We are excited to welcome Noah Jordan and his fiancé, Avery Amundson, to Rose Hill today! As most of you know, Noah will be beginning as our youth minister this week and Avery will begin as an RN soon, too. I know that we are all looking forward to getting to know them and getting to share in the work of the Lord in Columbus together!

On the one hand, it is a very exciting thing when we have an opportunity to welcome a new minister like Noah who has committed to serving our youth and has devoted several years to preparing himself for this at Harding University. Let us welcome him not as "the hired hand", but as a fellow partner in ministry (Ephesians 4:11-16).

Yet the more I thought about it, the more I realized that it is a far more joyful thing when we have an opportunity to welcome two Christians into the Rose Hill family. Isn't that what comes first? We really aren't welcoming "the youth minister" today—we are welcoming a brother and a sister in Christ to join our family and to be loved by us. That's what it means to be a church, and that's what it means to be at Rose Hill!

So by all means, let's welcome Noah and Avery and thank them for making the commitment to be here serving our young people; but let's celebrate all the more that we have another addition to the family here, and that always comes first!

"For through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, in whom the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit." (Ephesians 2:18-22)

6Weeks4Bibles

The Need. Recently we learned from Nkosi Mpfu (Zimbabwe Missions) and Velapi Mlangeni (World Bible School and Partners4Africa) of the great need for Bibles, particularly in the Ndebele language, as well as English WBS Bibles. Over the next six weeks we are challenging our young people to give as much as possible to this effort! There will be a jar on the stage to collect coin (and paper!). Every Sunday we would like for them to come and put something in the jar. Parents, please assist your children with this. Teens, please be ready to contribute as well! Adults, paper money of any amount is welcome at any time! Dorian Flynn will be at Rose Hill on July 31 to give a report on the work in Zimbabwe. We would love to present him a large check that he can take back to Africa with him! Here's the best part of 6Weeks4Bibles! The week before Dorian arrives, the jar will be counted, and whatever amount is raised will be matched from the Rose Hill treasury! Is there anyone else in the congregation who would like to match the amount in the jar? If so, let one of the Elders know! Ndebele is spoken in the areas where most of the work is done by P4A and Nkosi. We do not ship Bibles from here; they are printed in Africa, then purchased and distributed. They cost about $10 (U.S.) each. The challenge of not having God's Word in a local language is not unique to Zimbabwe. There are an estimated 1500 different distinct languages in all of Africa, of which many are without any Bible translation.

Staying in Touch

Celebrating Our Freedom

You've often heard it said by others
That "freedom isn't free."
It always comes at a tremendous cost
Before it can be enjoyed by you and me.

Think of those people who've shed their blood
And even some gave their lives for freedom's sake.
They refused to sit back and tyranny reign-
They were willing to die when liberty was at stake.

So, we humbly offer our gratitude
To all those who fought and bled and died.
Since we live in a land where freedom's enjoyed
For them that we're thankful can't be denied!

But the greatest freedom that can be cherished
Is the one granted through Calvary's Cross
For when God's Son shed His precious blood,
We were set free from sin's burden and dross.

We were liberated from all hopelessness
So that we're no longer slaves to the folly of sin.
It can no longer enslave us, crush our soul
Christ's blood gives us power over all sin to win!

So, let us celebrate this freedom each day
And truly live as free as God meant us to be.
Let us never forget liberty came at the highest cost
And that our freedom in Christ has never been free!

Lesson 12

Judges of Israel

Memory Verse:

"Commit your way to the Lord; trust in Him and He will act."
Psalm 37:5

In this lesson, your child will be learning about the Judges appointed by God to serve in the land of Israel. We will specifically cover Ehud, Deborah, Gideon and Samson. Please discuss these stories with your child so they can continue to learn and study God's word throughout the week.

We are so glad that you are here with us today. Our service today will be to praise and worship our God and to encourage and uplift us to face another week in this world. We will sing and pray. We will meet around the Lord's Table to remember what our Savior did for us so long ago. We will give of the many blessings that God has given us to do the work He has given us. We will have a lesson from His Word that will hopefully be applicable to your daily life.

If you are a visitor, please fill out a visitor's card so we can have a record of your time with us. Ask any of our family members where you can get one of these cards. If there is anything, we can do to help you then please let us know.
